ger Annexes Purse.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 4.—The investigation into the doping of Calcutta resulted in the indefinite suspension of Walter Slms, trainer of the horse, and Clifford Moffatt, a stable hand, and an official announcement of the fact that the Calcutta entry will be declined hereafter.

Four well-backed favorites scored to-day, and nearly all the books received a severe drubbing. Reckoner, backed from 9 to 10 to 7 to 10, just did get up in time to beat Boulding a half a length in the first.
Russell Gorth and Boulding made all the running.

The biggest upset of the day took place in the fourth race, when the St. Louis filly, Footlights Favorite, defeated some of the best 2-year-olds at the track. Rainland and Dutiful had the call in the betting. Neither finished in the money, however. Footlights Favorite was outstripped by a length from Katie Powers, which beat the pacemaker, King Croker, for the place by a nose. Higgins rode a perfect race on the winner.

The Messenger, another St. Louis favorite, scored in the sixth race. The finish in this event was extremely exciting, the Messenger, Lampton and Ora McKinley finishing head and head in the order named.
Lampton was the best horse, as he got away badly and had to race around the entire field. He would have beaten the Messenger in another stride.

Willie Hennessey landed a nose in the second race. Rain of Gilead was the best horse, but Hennessey plainly outdistanced Munro. Nellie Forest, well backed, showed some early speed, but collapsed at the end.

Ostrich signalled his debut here by running for the players, who backed him from 8 to 5 down on the field. He was beaten by a neck in a drive. Ostrich was the best horse, but Hennessey got Ostrich away badly and took the lead. The crowd went wild. Ostrich ran a strong third.
Big Ben broke flying in the speed handicap and secured victory. He was easily eaten by a length. Scorpions might have made him extend himself if he had gotten off on even terms with the winner.

Jockey Charlie Irwin, who has been riding Doctor Stephens, died here to-day of pneumonia.
